The Teacher Education Program*

at the University of Utah

has been granted

Initial Accreditation (5 years)

by the

Teacher Education Accreditation Council

October 1, 2011 – October 1, 2016

Mark LaCelle-Peterson
President

Frank B. Murray
Board of Directors Chair

* The University of Utah Teacher Education Program offers options at both the undergraduate and graduate level in Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Special Education, and Secondary Education (in the specialized content areas of visual arts, dance, theatre, Communication, Spanish, Chinese, Russian, French, German, health, mathematics, English, English as a Second Language, biology, chemistry, earth sciences, geology, physical science, physics, geography, history, and social science).